

ABSTRACT. Let $\alpha : G \rightarrow G$ be an endomorphism of a discrete amenable group such that $[G : \alpha(G)] < \infty$. We study the structure of the C^* algebra generated by the left convolution operators acting on the left regular representation space, along with the isometry of the space induced by the endomorphism.