

ABSTRACT. For any equivalence relation \equiv on positive integers such that $nk \equiv mk$ if and only if $n \equiv m$, there is an abelian group G such that the endomorphism ring of G^n and G^m are isomorphic if and only if $n \equiv m$. However, G^n and G^m are not isomorphic if $n \neq m$.