

ABSTRACT. A class of Legendrian submanifolds with closed conformal vector field in Sasakian space forms is studied. The existence of these submanifolds is analyzed and some topological and geometric properties are given. A characterization up to conformal transformation by the Maslov form is also given.